To Whom It May Concern:

It is time this Microsoft Antitrust suit is settled. As part of the general public I feel that it has taken up enough time and we should get on with other items that need work done on them. Believe me there is enough to keep your Department busy.

As a customer I did not believe that the antitrust suit should have ever happened. Microsoft provided it customers with a great product at fair value. It is my understanding that the general public did not believe in this antitrust suit and that it was done solely to benefit some Millionaires who could not keep up with Microsoft.

Please add my opinion that it is time to get this settled and move on.

Sincerely,

Sandra Kaye Bailey
